

'Save Lambeage' Newsletter

Dear Residents and Visitors

Thank you so much to everyone who dug deep and responded to our 'Save Lambeage' plea. We have now raised half of the shortfall needed to secure the foundations, and are confident that we will raise the other £7,000 over the coming months. We are putting the work out to tender straight away, with the aim of it being undertaken in the autumn.

Recent Events:

Womans : Carn to Cove

It was amazing what a great performance 4 young ladies were able to put on with so few props. Seriously inventive use of sheets. A great evening. Clever and funny,

It's Your Round

A pub quiz with a cabaret twist by Scary Little Girl Rebecca Mordan as landlady Pat Pinch. A hugely fun evening. She has promised a return visit when she's in Cornwall.

Hall and Battery Improvements

Inside we have created a tea room and had a good clearout and a spring clean. Coverack Art Club have given it a lick of paint and our new cleaner, Dave Martin, is keeping us spick and span. Outside a willing team have set to and undertaken repairs and improvements. Thank you!

Our next working party morning is Saturday 11th May 10am-1pm. Please come along and help if you can.

Upcoming Events

April 14 : Sunday Afternoon
Tea 2-5pm

April 16: 'Adrift' A film with local interest. 7 for 7.30pm

May 15 : Lambeage Hall and Battery AGM 7.30 pm

Grand Summer Draw

We are running a Grand Draw all summer with prizes of interest to residents and visitors alike – original artworks by Jenny Field and Susannah Garland; 2 nights B&B at Fernleigh and at The Paris; a pair of his 'n' hers watches; WHSmith voucher and more. Please help us to sell lots over the summer.
Draw : 17th September 2019.
